Burglary, arson at GC store

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

Fire raged through Ted's X-L Hardware, 1918 Delmar Ave., late Tuesday night and threatened to spread to other buildings on the block which shared the same wall and had adjacent basements and second floors.

There are indications the fire was deliberately set by burglars in an effort to destroy any evidence of the burglary, a Granite City police spokesman said.

The fire was discovered at 11:20 p.m. Monday by a man who was walking down the street. The area "was full of smoke" and sought the source of the smoke. When he drove behind the hardware store, flames were already leaping out the door, police were told.

Firemen fought the blaze for nearly three hours, but four firemen suffered minor injuries during the blaze.

The fire started in the rear office where three cash boxes had been removed from a cabinet and were found upside down on the floor. Less than $1,000 was believed taken, according to the business owner, Ted Berger. Drawers of desks in the office also appeared to have been opened, searched and left slightly open, police noted.

"We are not yet sure how early it was ignited," Detective Craig Nunn of the police department commented. "We are also trying to figure out why the burglar alarm did not sound, although it appears at this time the alarm box

$1 million saved called 'blessing'

By HARRY BARNES
of the Press-Record

Milam-East Division of SCA Services, Inc., has agreed to automatically collect trash and garbage in Granite City with cost increases of 5 percent in each of the next three years. City Council members were informed Tuesday night.

The firm's move was hailed by some as a "blessing" in view of the city's mounting financial problems and virtually all of the 13 aldermen at Tuesday night's council session expressed approval of the move and said it would save the city about $350,000 in collection costs during the current year.

81 fiscal year alone.

Acceptance of a contract renewal under which the collection firm will handle the city's garbage and trash pickups at a rate of 5 percent increase over the cost of the present contract will mean a city saving of $102,459 below the lowest of four bids for a new contract over the three-year period through June 30.

The present contract held by the Milam Division provided that the contract would be "automatically renewed" if neither the city nor the company notified the other within 60 days of the expiration date that it intended to terminate the contract. The existing Milam contract would have expired June 30.

When the 60-day expiration deadline passed April 30, Seventh Ward Alderman Paul R. Bowler, chairman of the council's finance committee, announced that he would act to secure a renewal of the existing contract on the basis of the 60-day clause.

The renewal proposal was followed by a letter to the city Tuesday morning from SCA in which the firm agreed it had erred in not informing the city of its intentions to seek a new contract and that it would accept renewal of the present agreement with 5 percent annual cost increases as set out in the contract.

The contract shall be in full force and effect for an initial term of three years from the date of the commencement of work hereunder.

At the expiration of said three-year term, and each renewal thereafter, this contract shall be automatically renewed for an additional three-year renewal term, unless either party shall notify the other party by registered United States mail no less than 60 days prior to the expiration of the current term, that the notifying party does not desire to renew this contract for said additional term.

Since the party has expressed a desire not to renew the contract, it would appear that it is now automatically renewed.

"We, of course, will honor our previous agreement and will extend said contract for an additional three-year term at the 5 percent increase per year rate," he said.

After the letter was read, Bowler moved that it be placed on file and said that no other action appeared necessary at this time since the renewal was automatic under the 60-day clause.

Alderman Warren Decatur remarked, "This is indeed good news. I want to congratulate Bowler on what he has done for the city and the city about $350,000 this year. The city attorney (Lance Callis) has said this is legal."

Other aldermen joined in commends favoring the renewal.

The only exception was First Ward Alderman Everett Morfin who

Challenge license investigation plan

Informed that more objections to a proposed new ordinance had been developed, the Granite City Council Tuesday night referred the measure back to its Ordinance Committee for more revisions.

The new bill which was a revision of an earlier license measure voted by the City Council March 25 was placed on first reading in the April 22 council session.

Alderman Paul Fisk, chairman of the Ordinance Committee, made the motion to pass up final passage action and return the ordinance back to his committee.

The action also followed the presentation of a request by Jim Livingston, executive vice president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, that more consideration be given the ordinance now before the council.

Granted permission to address the aldermen, Livingston told the council that the chamber objected to a clause in the bill requiring police investigation of applicants for business licenses.

Livingston questioned the city manager about the cost of retail merchant licenses on the number of employees hired by a retail store, and the cost of food dealers' licenses on the basis of square footage of the establishment.

He said that while the bill sets a license fee for hotels, there is none set for motels.

Asked if he intended to defer action on a second reading in Tuesday night's meeting because he

State files suit on coke plant pollution

An injunction against Granite City Steel, a division of National Steel, to half operations of its newly-completed coke battery is being sought by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency until the company is in compliance with EPA requirements.

The complaint for injunction and motion for preliminary injunction was filed Monday afternoon in Madison County Circuit Court by the attorney general, acting for the EPA.

The complaint charges Granite City Steel with operating coke making facilities without either applying for or having been issued an operating permit by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency until the company has the special provision of its construction permit issued by the agency, which requires special equipment designed to cut down air emissions.

Specifically, the company has failed to apply for an operating permit for the coke battery before or since it started manufacturing coke used in steelmaking, as required by regulations, the complaint charges.

It also violates the special terms of its construction permit by failing to have a second coal charging port, specially equipped to prevent smoke emissions when fresh coal is added to the facility, it said.

Dan Goodwin, manager of the agency's division of Air Pollution Control, pointed out that "a vast majority of emission sources are obeying the law, and we received repeated assurances from National Steel that the new coke batteries would be in operation only when it was in complete compliance with agency regulations."

"I am dismayed over National Steel's continued attitude, especially in this case when the company had the opportunity to obey the law and made a conscious decision not to."

Amend bus district bill

Legislation to allow one to three mass transit districts in Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties to merge and form a fourth district to contract with a private bus contractor.

The plan for one to three districts is on second reading in the Illinois Senate and will be referred to the Illinois House if senators vote affirmative.

It is the only proposal under active consideration in the state legislature, and is regarded as the key to continuing an adequate level of state financial support to the BI-State Transit System, Sen. Vadala said.

Unless local-level tax contributions for mass transit are initiated by July 1, existing state law calls for a sharp cut in state funding, leading to a drastic reduction in bus service, it was stated. Charles Houghton, BI-State Development Agency executive director.

Fight to retain shared revenue

By MARK STRAIN
of the Press-Record

A special meeting of city and county officials to discuss possible cutbacks in federal revenue sharing funds—and to make plans to defend the program—was held for 2 p.m. Saturday, May 17 at the Madison County Firemen's Hall, 901 Calumet Road.

Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols, at the Tuesday evening Venice Council meeting said, "I cannot overemphasize the importance of us being at this meeting."

"There seem to be indications that the federal government may cut out these funds completely or at least cut them back. No one really knows what will happen. But the City of Venice will be in real trouble if the cutbacks

"The bulk of our city budget for our police department, senior citizen programs and recreation program comes from revenue sharing funds."

"If this program is cut back, the hard, cold facts are that the city not only will not be able to make any cuts in salaries, but many of our workers will be lucky to have jobs."

"Not only would this cause a reduction in city services, it would certainly increase local property taxes," Echols said.

It was announced that Congressman Melvin Price (D-23rd District) will be at the May 17 meeting.

Early school vacation

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

Good news for students in the Granite City public school system. The Granite City Board of Education voted Tuesday night to change the last day of school this year from June 12 to June 6, eliminating four school days.

By law, the district must have 180 days of classes. Since no snow days or emergency days were declared during the year, it was possible to shorten the school year by four days.

At the end of the day June 6, a Friday, rather than continuing through Thursday, June 12, Assistant Superintendent Frank L. Kraut told the board.

A disagreement with the teachers over their working agreement postponed the opening of school by two days and caused a reworking of the calendar early in the school year.

At that time, a calendar with 184 attendance days was chosen, leaving days for emergencies and institutes. Since there were no emergency days taken during the year, the board unanimously agreed Tuesday night to advancing the last day of school to June 6.

The school board also adopted the calendar for the next school year, which calls for students to attend classes from Aug. 26, 1980, through June 5, 1981.

The school year next year will begin with a pre-emptive day Aug. 26, a faculty orientation and institute Aug. 28, and students reporting to classes Aug. 29.

Schools will be closed Sept. 1 for Labor Day and Oct. 13 for Columbus Day. November closings will include parent-teacher conference day Nov. 6, Veterans Day Nov. 11, Thanksgiving holiday closings Nov. 27 and 28.

The Christmas holiday will begin after classes Dec. 23 and school will resume Jan. 1, 1981. The first semester will end Jan. 11, and the second semester will begin Jan. 19.

Phones will be ringing on Mother's Day

Thousands of moms will spend Mother's Day (May 11) helping to connect telephone calls from children and other relatives to millions of mothers all over the world.

Illinois Bell and American Telephone & Telegraph's Long Lines Department will count scores of mothers among the extra employees scheduled for duty Sunday to assist with the heavy calling.

Some of the working mothers will spend Mother's Day helping callers place credit card and other operator-assisted calls.

Other mothers will be busy in directory assistance offices, letting up numbers others don't have.

Some will help staff the telephone network operations center in Chicago, helping guide the enormous flow of calls throughout the nation and overseas. They will use computerized equipment to route calls over alternate circuits to avoid traffic jams.

AT&T Long Lines said it expects Americans will average more than 25,000 long distance calls a minute Sunday.

In all, the company anticipates about 100 million calls, compared to 33.6 million on mother's Day last year. On a normal Sunday, the nation's telephone network handles approximately 25 million long distance calls a day.

This year's total includes an estimated 310,000 calls to overseas locations, 30 percent more than last year's total of 239,000.

Heavy calling will take place following morning church services and again after 6 p.m. Calling volumes are somewhat less in the afternoon.

Lillian Lynch, Illinois Bell's general manager for operator services, said 1,077 operators — many of them mothers — will be busy assisting callers with an estimated 523,000 calls on Sunday.

All customers in Illinois will be able to dial all operator-assisted calls direct. Installation of TSPS (Traffic Service Position System) in all of the company's operator offices makes direct dialing possible.

Les Carter, network operations manager, said the job of managing telephone traffic may be complicated on Mother's Day because calling patterns change on holidays. On a normal business day, long distance calling is heaviest between big cities. But on Mother's Day, more people call in to and from small towns and rural areas.

Since most people will be talking longer than usual, some calls may not go through on the first attempt.

Illinois Bell advises waiting a few minutes before trying again.

It's a good idea to call in mid-afternoon when the volume of calls is lighter, Carter added.

Callers who want to save time and money will dial their own calls and place them during one of the less busy periods, all day Saturday, early Sunday morning or Sunday afternoon before 5.

Customers who dial their own interstate calls at time Saturday before 5 p.m. Sunday will take advantage of night and weekend rates that are 60 percent lower than daytime rates.

Interstate evening rates, 35 percent lower than day rates, apply from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday.

Rates for long distance calls within Illinois are also lower during these periods.

Lillian Lynch pointed out that callers can take these rates to their advantage. "The night and weekend rate is in effect everywhere in the country from 11 p.m. to 8 a.m.," she said.

"This means that someone dialing a call just after 11 p.m. on Saturday with the lowest rates in effect, can reach someone in California where it's only 9 p.m."

In the opposite direction, she said, callers can dial a related Mother's Day call to the East Coast before 8 a.m. Monday — when rates go up — and reach Mom before 9 a.m. Eastern time.

GC Lions bike-a-thon set May 24

In an effort to raise funds to aid handicapped children attend summer camp, the Granite City Lions Club will again this year sponsor a bike-a-thon under the leadership of Elmer Wortham, Lions project chairman.

Amateur cyclists, all members of the club, will ride a 15-mile course to collect pledges from various sources.

Sponsors make pledges to pay a specific amount of cash per mile to the individual Lion he is sponsoring, with the total contribution depending on the distance covered by the cyclist.

Those participating in the annual "Bike-A-Thon" to aid blind, deaf and visually impaired children will not be riding into the busy flow of major traffic, but will follow a full 15-mile course arranged for the contestants, Wortham explained.

The travel route will begin from the Mitchell Athletic Club grounds, proceed east to Poag Road and along Poag to Edwardsville, a distance of seven and a half miles. The cyclists will turn around and ride back to Mitchell to complete the course, the chairman added.

Wortham said any amount of money can be pledged per mile and the number of contestants and their member securities is not limited.

The club hopes to reach a goal of $2,000 that will provide more than 10 youngsters with a camping trip to a camp where they might not have without the aid of the Lions Club.

Children from this area of Illinois will attend Camp Lions Little Giant, near Carbondale, and are all handicapped or deaf-hearing impaired boys and girls, between the ages of 8 and 16.

The camp, opened in 1978, is located at Southern Illinois University's Environmental Center, about 10 miles from Carbondale on the shores of Little Grass Lake.

Another camp, the Lions Lake Villa, north of Chicago, established in 1957 is also operated by the Illinois Lions.

The camp near Carbondale occupies 80 acres of land, 50 of which are Nature Center. There are 16 cabins, each housing six to eight campers and two counselors, and two dormitories housing 36 children each.

Also available on the camp site is a dining hall, chapel, craft area, boys' and girls' shower facilities, library, education building, an Indian center and a laundry.

Campers also have the use of a beach on Little Grass

Each counselor is chosen for his or her experience and ability to deal with handicapped children and young adults. Counselors are working in the field of special education.

A well designed training program to familiarize the counselors with the special needs of the handicapped child is conducted one week before the children arrive at the camp.

Special activities planned for the children include an Indian Pow Wow, Disco Night and Gung Show.

Activities planned for the summer event will be learning to swim, play softball with a special

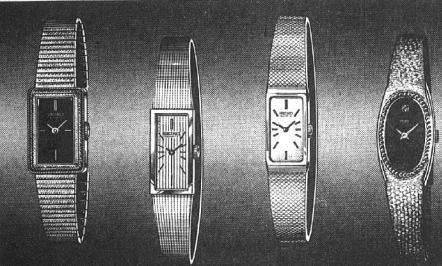

GUN FIRED IN HOME

Two men entered the home of David Tackett, 2133 Monroe St., at 8 p.m. Monday, argued with the persons present and one was killed.

A caliber .357 magnum pistol was found in the ceiling after threatening one man and the occupant, Granite City police were told.

Walter Bishop

Walter Bishop, 62, of 3995 Lake St., ill for three months with a heart ailment, died at 9:40 a.m. Wednesday, May 7, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Granite City. He had been hospitalized for eight days.

Born in Grand Tower, Ill., Mr. Bishop had resided in this area for 28 years.

Mr. Bishop had worked for 11 years with Local 320 Operating Engineers and retired on disability in 1972.

He was of the Baptist faith and was a veteran of World War II serving with the U.S. Army.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Pauline (McCoy) Bishop; two brothers, Oscar Bishop, Grand Tower, Ill., and Alvin Bishop, of Avondale, Ariz.; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Clover, Murphysboro, Ill.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday, May 12, at Mercer Mortuary Chapel, 2016 Edgewood, Alton. Burial will be in the local Cemetery, Jefferson Barracks. Mourners may call at the funeral home after 3 p.m. Sunday. The family requests no flowers.

Madeline Broadway

Mrs. Madeline (Schumacher) Broadway, 73, of 2813 Washington Ave., a Granite City resident since 1938, died at 10:15 a.m. Wednesday, May 7, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

She had been ill for one and one-half years and was a patient at the hospital for one month.

Mrs. Broadway was born in New Berlin, Ill.

She was a member of St. John United Church of Christ and also belonged to

Barracks 34 Auxiliary, Veterans of World War I.

Mrs. Broadway had been employed for 10 years at the St. John Co., St. Louis, prior to her retirement.

Survivors include her husband, James Broadway; one son, Alber Grieve, Oak Park, Ill.; a daughter, Mrs. Versal (Luisa) Hicks, Collinsville, Ill.; a son, Mr. Luisa Mooney, Clayton, Mo.; six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 10, at Irwin Chapel, for Funerals, 2801 Madison Street, with the Rev. John N. Neff officiating. Burial will be in St. John Cemetery, 2901 Nameoki Road. Friends may call after 3 p.m. Friday. The family requests memorials to Madison County Hospital.

Raymond Cowan

Raymond H. Cowan, 88, of 2805 E. 25th St., was pronounced dead at home at 12:20 p.m. Wednesday, May 7, by Edward Werner, Madison County deputy coroner.

He apparently had become ill suddenly and there was an inquiry to determine the cause of death.

He was born in Marshfield, Mo., and was a lifelong resident of Granite City. Mr. Cowan was a member of the Glenview Chapel, Assembly of God Church.

He retired in 1947 as a plainer operator at General Steel Industries after 35 years of service.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Margaret (Stuart) Cowan; three children, Mr. Richard (Dewey) Cowan, of Selbros, Granite City; Mrs. Richard (Mickey) Grace and Mrs. John (Shirley) Lawless, both of Florissant, Mo.; four sons, Stuart, Robert B., Maurice and Kenneth Cowan, all of Granite City; 12 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 10, at Glenview Chapel Assembly of God Church, Maryville Road and Wilson Avenue, with the Rev. M. W. Wilson officiating.

Post 80 learns CPR training

Explorer Post 80, sponsored by Dr. Jack Miller, took part in eight hours of training in cardiopulmonary resuscitation, or CPR.

The course is a part of a 40 hour "First Responder Course" sponsored by the Illinois Department of Transportation. Geneva Fox, R.N. and Post 80 associate advisor, will be teaching the first class.

First Responder is an in-depth training course in emergency first aid. Topics such as drug overdoses, spine injuries, shock, bleeding, child birth and field examinations will be covered.

At the completion of the course, the Explorers will receive state department of transportation certificates of completion and certification as a "trained "First Responder."

Offer swing dance class

A four week Imperial Swing Class will begin at the Tri-City Area YMCA May 11. The class will meet on Sundays only from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

The class, which combines jitterbug, swing and disco, will be taught by Denny Puryear and Lynn Svezia. Those interested will concentrate on basic steps, turns and walks.

"Interested persons need not have a partner to register," said Puryear.

Fees are $12 for YMCA members and $16 for non-members. For registration information, interested persons may call the Y at 876-7200.

SEEK TO REDUCE SPORTS INJURIES

Governor James R. Thompson has endorsed a report from the Governor's Task Force on Athletic Injury Prevention which recommends establishment of a statewide effort to prevent and reduce sports injuries. The report recommends that the State Board of Education establish a first aid division to be headed by a Crisis Medicine Division to implement the Task Force's proposals.

Other recommendations include development of injury reporting and surveillance systems, development of pre-season conditioning programs, establishment of an advisory committee on sport safety, and a requirement that all coaches receive current certification in basic first aid and cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Gracey found guilty of murder

Alroy Joseph Gracey Jr., 47, of Eastgate Drive, Pontoon Beach, was convicted by a jury in Edwardsville Monday night of murder in the slaying of Elsie's Tavern (the old roundhouse) on Old Route 66 just east of Route 157, Nov. 2, 1979.

The trial was conducted before Judge John W. Dey in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville.

Gracey testified in his own defense Monday and told the jury he felt that comments

Mr. Stockman made toward him and his son in the tavern were threats of death.

Several times, Mr. Stockman threatened to "do me in," Gracey testified, and Mr. Stockman played pool together before the tavern closed and prosecutor Keith Jensen, an assistant Madison County state's attorney, said, "I did."

It was legal for Gracey to play billiards with Mr. Stockman after Mr. Stockman had allegedly just threatened Gracey's life.

Gracey also testified that after the tavern closed, Mr. Stockman called him to a car in which Mr. Stockman was sitting and when Gracey got into the car, he was surprised by a loud bang. He said the noise was from the loaded pistol he was allegedly carrying during the incident.

He said he did not know how the human blood got on the 357 magnum pistol, which was recovered later under a chair cushion in Gracey's apartment.

The prosecution concluded its presentation early Monday and the case went to the jury Monday afternoon, following Gracey's testimony. The jury returned its verdict about 9:35 p.m. Monday. They were live in the courtroom for the case, which began Tuesday, April 29.

Witnesses during the case included barmaid Elta May Conrad of Granite City, who resembled Gracey standing near his waistband in the tavern the night of the murder. She also said Gracey and Mr. Stockman had been drinking together and playing billiards prior to leaving.

Mr. Stockman was found slumped over the wheel of his car in the parking lot after the tavern closed. He had been shot through the head.

Jensen contended that witnesses saw a man who resembled Gracey standing near Mr. Stockman's car shortly before he was murdered and the murderer was later found in Gracey's apartment.

Anne Brown of Edwardsville testified that she was a patron in Elsie's the night of the shooting and said Mr. Stockman had been drinking and arguing with several patrons before he was shot.

Elaine Feig of Granite City testified that Gracey came to her home after the shooting and stated, "I'm in trouble. I think I shot somebody," and said it occurred at Elsie's during the night.

Experts confirmed that Mr. Stockman was shot with the gun which later was found in Gracey's apartment.

Defense Attorney Wendell Durr of Edwardsville represented Gracey and pointed out that there were no eyewitnesses to the shooting and that there are conflicting autopsy reports as to whether the bullet was fired from the driver's side or the passenger's side.

Later, at Gracey's apartment, there were knocks on the door, which he refused to answer; and he told her, "I think I may have gotten myself into some trouble."

Miss Weiss testified.

Experts confirmed that

Mr. Stockman was shot with the bullet passed through the victim's head from right to left, but later found another bullet fragment.

On the passenger side door, indicating the bullet must have passed from the driver's side, the left, to the passenger's side. He then changed his autopsy report, he testified.

Terminal to close Rt. 3

The Granite City Council Tuesday night granted the Illinois Terminal Railroad permission to close old Route 3 near the A.O. Smith plant to repair the Illinois Terminal grade crossing.

The highway at that point will be closed from 8 a.m. Monday to 3 p.m. Friday.

A detour will be taken from 20th Street to Nameoki Drive and to Route 3 and reverse for traffic in the opposite direction.

Boys improving from dog bites

Two small boys bitten by a large dog in the 2700 block of Nameoki Road during the weekend were reported improving Tuesday.

James Taylor, 2725 Nameoki Drive, father of the boys, said the incident occurred when his youngest son, John Taylor, 2½ years old, was outside of the yard and into a neighbor's yard and that his other boy, Jimmy Taylor, followed the younger boy into the yard to bring John home.

Taylor said it is natural for children to play in yards and was not aware of signs in the yard which said to beware of the dog and that no trespassing was allowed.

"Anyone with any sense would know children of this age would not be aware of signs," he stated.

The dog attacked both boys, police said, resulting in bites to John's head and back and abrasions to Jimmy's chest.

Both boys were treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

The dog had been turned over to the humane officer for identification and release. The owner said the dog has had rabies shots.

The boys were rescued by their mother and sister, Mary, 13, Taylor reported.

Film tonight at GC North High

A Distant Thunder, a Mark IV Pictures Inc. production, will be presented by the Granite City North High School Mamma Program tonight at 7 p.m. at Granite City North High School cafeteria.

A Distant Thunder, a 78-minute color film, is a sequel to Mark IV Pictures 1973 release, A Thief in the Night.

Film registration dates are May 27 through June 4. However, the registration office will close at 6 p.m. on May 27, 28, 29 and 30.

Registration is very early for students this year than in previous years since there is at this point, a nine percent increase in summer enrollment.

"If students want to get the schedules that fit their needs," he said, "they should get out to the camp right away and get registered."

Registration hours are from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and until 3:30 p.m. on Fridays.

The program registration on Saturdays, and the campus will be closed on Fridays beginning May 23.

Tuition for summer classes is $14 per credit hour with a per credit hour student services fee.

The summer session at BAC begins June 9 and ends July 31.

Springfest next week

It will be a week of booths, bands, crafts and contests May 12-16 when Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville students celebrate "Springfest 1980" on the university mall.

For competitive-minded individuals, contests will begin with the traditional opening event of a trike race around the university mall at 12:30 p.m. Monday, May 12. Following the trike race, more mature riders can show their racing form in a 10-speed bike contest.

The winner will receive the choice of a free trip sponsored by the university's Union Station. In the past, trips to Colorado, Florida or Hawaii have been offered.

Other competitions to be held during the week include free jumping, pie eating, horseshoe throwing, bed race, canoe races, obstacle course run, arm wrestling and kite flying.

Woolyball will be played.

Other contests to be held during the week include free jumping, pie eating, horseshoe throwing, bed race, canoe races, obstacle course run, arm

wrestling and kite flying.

Woolyball will be played.

Other contests to be held during the week include free jumping, pie eating, horseshoe throwing, bed race, canoe races, obstacle course run, arm

wrestling and kite flying.

Throughout the week, the bands are scheduled to set up on the University Center patio except Griffin, which will play at the Tower Lake band shell on Sunday, May 15, at noon.

From Tuesday to Thursday, several game booths and seven craft booths will be set up on the mall. Fresh fruit and vegetable stands will also be in operation.

Other highlights during the free week will include: free hot air balloon rides, May 13 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; rock and roll battles with the Gem Septet, a jazz band, at the Faculty Club, May 14 from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.; and Tower Lake Day, May 16 from 3:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

On Tower Lake Day, a picnic, volleyball tournament and other games and races will be held at the lake.

Throughout the week, the bands are scheduled to set up on the University Center patio except Griffin, which will play at the Tower Lake band shell on Sunday, May 15, at noon.

From Tuesday to Thursday, several game booths and seven craft booths will be set up on the mall. Fresh fruit and vegetable stands will also be in operation.

MARIJUANA ARREST

A 16-year-old boy from Louis was arrested in Wilson Park at 11:15 a.m. Tuesday and was charged with possession of marijuana. A policeman checked a group of four youths in the park and found the youth who was arrested had a cigarette box in his shirt with a marijuana cigarette in plain view. A total of five marijuana cigarettes and four cigarette butts were found in the package, the officer alleged.

Summer baseball under the lights being discussed

Granite City park commissioners remain interested in organizing the Fehling Road baseball-soccer complex this summer for lighted night baseball games of three American Legion teams. The teams include an Edwardsburg team involving Granite Cityans, and other teams that voice interest.

But no specific policy was adopted last night after two contrasting votes each at traced only two affirmative responses.

The matter may be considered at a special meeting. A May 21 meeting date was chosen tentatively for action on a park district's annual expenditure report.

Barry Loman and David Nolan favored park operation and scheduling, but rejection of a school district plan for park collection and handling of lighting fees from the same night.

Sykes was re-elected as president and Worthen as vice-president. Reappointments and yearly salaries approved were: Director of Parks and Recreation Harold Brown, beginning his 18th year in that post, $1,256; Secretary Frank Ren, $6,136; Treasurer John Mink, $5,018; and Attorney Randall Robertson, $5,538.

To meet the lighting costs, the planned fee schedule includes $20 for a seven-inning game that starts and ends under the lights, and $40 for two such games on the same night.

Arrested in weekend rapes

Henry E. Murphy, 27, of 1303 Kirkpatrick Homes, was arrested at his apartment at 2:10 p.m. Tuesday and has been charged with two counts of rape.

He allegedly raped two Granite City women, ages 19 and 30 Sunday morning after meeting them at the Double Lounge, Madison, and inviting them to a "party" at a mobile home in Mitchell.

The victims alleged Murphy appeared "high" on drugs or alcohol during the incident. After the rape in the mobile home, the alleged victims went to the levee and raped them again.

One woman said she was raped twice and the other said she was raped three times before they were freed in Lincoln Place.

Murphy's bond is set at $50,000 and he is being held in the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Assessing review is cleared by grand jury

A Madison County Circuit Court grand jury Wednesday cleared county assessment officials of any criminal intent in a series of valuation corrections made in 1978.

The jury ruled that state laws allow a number of adjustments to be made and said that the state rules on property procedures are confusing.

The investigation involved certificates of error issued by the county which in some cases reduced the assessed property assessment rates by township assessors. Some contended that such changes may have totaled more than $860,000, but it was not made clear whether or not any net valuation reductions.

Individual bills are determined by applying rates to individual assessments; the rates are determined by applying levies to the total valuation base.

James Barton, superintendent of assessments, and members of the Board of Review said the methods used in the county were the same as "those used in many counties" over a long period of years.

Since the topic became a public issue, proposed changes in error have been routed to additional county officials. The number of certificates has dropped, due to limitation of changes to mathematical errors; errors of judgment no longer are being corrected unless property owners have filed an objection within 30 days of the date yearly assessments become final (about 11 months before mailing of tax bills).

The amount of total taxation is related to annual tax levies set by cities, schools, townships and other districts.

James R. Heil, chairman of the Legislative Committee, Madison County Board, told the breakfast gathering he expects the committee will recommend passage of state enabling legislation, with the full board then asked to take such a stand this month.

But extensive study then will be given to the advantages and disadvantages of creating a transit district to effect purchase bus service from Bi-State, he added.

Assuming the proposal becomes state law, the Madison County issues will be whether to create a district and what degree of taxation and service is desirable, Heil said.

Mary Kane was present for County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer but did not speak.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk said care must be given to the creation of a rate track tax, for a sales tax, three for a cigarette tax, one for an auto tax and three taking no position because their cities lack service areas.

Heil said the state collection system is efficient and especially sensitive to inflation or deflation, speakers said.

To ward off deep cuts in local bus routes effective July 1, the prayer breakfast group voted to urge Illinois legislators to adopt the authorization for $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1 percent sales tax for mass transportation. (Additional information is given in an editorial in today's Press-Record.)

Store fire

was triggered and should have sounded," he said.

"All I know for sure is that these firemen did a heck of a job knocking this fire down and keeping it in this store."

"With flammable paints, solvents, wood, plastics and everything else, in here near the flames, we could have had a really bad situation which could have taken several buildings, if they had not been so far and done such a good job," Noland added.

Assistant Fire Chief George Smolich agreed, saying, "I think the men did a tremendous job under the circumstances." He indicated it was an unusual fire with paints, thinners, turpentine and other cans exploding or having the lids blown off by the superheated air.

The heat in the office area was so intense that it burned through several heavy floor joists of the balcony above it. The balcony did not collapse, however.

Firefighters restricted the fire damage to the rear of the hardware store. The fire did not cause any damage to the medical offices above the hardware store, to the Southwestern Cable TV office which was due to open next week in the portion of the building south of the office which recently housed The Plant Shop, to Bert's Audio-TV, south of the cable TV office.

Officials of the cable TV firm announced yesterday afternoon that they will postpone the opening of their office until Monday, May 19, as a result of the fire.

Pipeman Mike Nesbit suffered an injury to a leg when he fell over a fire hose inside the building and he was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was admitted for a time.

Engineer Bob Bell had his right thumb torn off on the door of a pumper. Two other fire officials, Capt. Bob Sanders and Shift Commander Harry Hinde, suffered minor cuts to their hands during the firefighting.

The state fire marshal's office was summoned yesterday morning to aid in investigating the cause of the blaze. A thorough search of the building was made by three state investigators and detectives yesterday.

There were no estimates of the damage, but authorities said it undoubtedly will total many thousands of dollars. Smolich said he felt certain the building can be renovated for another commercial business.

Ted's was in the process of a "going out of business sale" when the fire occurred.

maintained the council had not "acted right" in obtaining the new garbage contract.

In earlier council sessions, Nolan had insisted that the aldermen negotiate with the town of Milwood in reaching a new agreement, the lowest bid by the R.D. Johnson Co. of Godfrey would have cost the city $798,000 during the first year of a new contract with 4 percent annual increases, or a three-year total cost of $2,497,000.

"We tried to get into this and everybody (the aldermen) said no, no, and no stuck their heads in a hole. Then they ran around talking behind the back. This is not being done right. I think this should be fair about it," Morlein said.

Alderman Roy Poulos said he believes the city "is very fortunate" to have the development.

Sam Whitmer, chairman of the second ward, said, "We have done right. We called bids and the prices we, got were prohibitive. We'd better count our blessings."

The Johnson firm, lowest of four bidders on a new contract on March 29, informed the council by letter that the firm considered itself the low bidder and that the city had notified SCA of its intention to cancel the SCA contract which expired.

R.D. Johnson, operator of the firm, said in the letter that Bowler wrote SCA in June 1979 notifying the company it would not renew the contract but would call bids for a new agreement when the present pact expired.

Johnson said he knew of the letter because he had been the one who was assisting Kenneth Harbarger who then was corporate vice president of SCA, manager of SCA's Central Division and president of SCA Services in Illinois.

Johnson noted the letter of termination was sent by Bowler to Harbarger in June 1979, nine months more than the 60-day notice requirement.

Bowler, however, read the letter he had sent pointing out that it said more than the city planned to call bids, but did not send a cancellation or termination of the present contract.

Johnson's letter was placed on file with only brief discussion.

Alderman Mac Warfield of the Sixth Ward, who was with Bowler when he bid a bid comparable to the 5 percent increase in the present cost when bids were called in March.

Gen Sprankle, alderman of the Fourth Ward, said he had not been a member of the city council for a few years, "I do think the committee chairmen should hide these things and not make the rest of us aware of what is going on. I resent this."

His remarks obviously referred to the writing of the city officials to see if SCA would not renew its city of its intention to obtain a new contract before the deadline passed for applying the 60-day renewal clause.

Charles Douglas noted the city will still have to work out additional new arrangements for hauling sludge from the sewage treatment plant and other factors that would update the SCA agreement.

$1 million saved

On a motion by Decatur, the council again instructed City Clerk Robert Stevens to withdraw new bidding advertisements that were published early this week, asking for bid offers in 11 different categories of trash and garbage collection. Most bids were authorized two weeks ago, a time when officials still were considering alternatives to the high bids it had received for a new garbage contract.

Renewal of the present SCA contract will cost the city $470,923 for garbage collection services for the year beginning July 1. Under the 5 percent increases annual, the second-year cost would amount to $494,469.

The third year of operation will cost $519,192, for a three-year total cost of $1,494,584.

The trash collection problem developed when the City Council called for new bids in early March, only to learn that the cost of garbage and trash collection would more than double under the new bids.

On March 29, council members opened four bids to provide garbage and trash collection services for a three-year period. Under the lowest bid, the cost would have totaled $2,497,000, but the total cost of $2,244,675 paid by the city under the existing contract with the Milwood East Division of SCA Services over the last three years.

SCA Services was among the four bidders, but it was an offer which would total $2,767,695 over the next three years, more than double the cost of its present contract that became effective in June 1977. Milam's present contract with the city expires June 30.

Therefore, the city must complete new arrangements if the Milam's present contract is not renewed.

members instructed Nolan to proceed with a more thorough investigation of the cost and organization efforts involved in a city-operated system.

At the same time, Terry McMillan, supervisor of the city's solid waste management program, sent a bid for trash and garbage collection in 10 different categories of operation, noting that he believed strongly that bidders would be able to offer better prices on specific phases of the operation.

As a result of McMillan's experimentation, the aldermen instructed City Clerk Robert Stevens to advertise for such bids.

Those actions were followed by the council by Bowler early this week to call for a re-bidding of the present SCA-Milam contract on grounds that the company had failed to notify the city it would seek a new contract under the 60-day notification clause of the current contract.

On the basis of bids submitted March 29, which were rejected by the council, an extension of the existing SCA Services contract would cost the city $1,014,452 less than $2,497,036 low bid of the R.D. Johnson Co. of Godfrey for the three-year period.

The Johnson firm's bid was for $798,000 the first year of the contract with a 4 percent increase in each of the two following years. This would mean a cost of $829,920 during the second year and $861,116 during the third year for the $3,495,940 three-year package.

SCA's Milam Division contract awarded by the council in June 1977 for a three-year period called for $398,000 the first year of the contract with 5 percent increases in each of the two following years. This would mean a cost of $429,920 during the second year and $461,990 for the 1978-79 year for the $1,350,810 three-year period.

In comparison, this year's new bid by SCA Services for a new contract against $326,625 for the first year with 12 percent increases in each of the next two years, or $323,362 during the 1981-82 year and $1,036,300 during the 1982-83 year for a total of $2,787,892 for the three-year period.

This means the cost of an extended SCA contract under the pact's present terms would be $1,303,309 less than SCA's total three-year offer of $2,787,892, and would be $1,014,452 less than the $2,497,036 bid of the R.D. Johnson firm.

The other two bids which were among those rejected by the aldermen included one by Browning-Ferris Co. of St. Louis which stated it cost $1,000,000 the first year, called for 15 percent hikes during the next two years, and one by Bi-County Disposal of Belleville for $841,782 the first year and 5 percent increases.

These bid offers amounted to a total of $3,110,243 by Browning-Ferris and $2,653,717 by Bi-County Disposal for the three years of the contract.

A letter from Mayor Erwin Plegge of Beloit read in part: "We request all mayors and county officials to be present for this important meeting and also urge that all board members, policemen, firemen, city employees and concerned citizens are also present."

Similar meetings, under sponsorship of the Illinois Municipal League, are being held in all Congressional districts in Illinois.

The National League of Cities is organizing the same type of program in all of the other 49 states, according to Mayor Plegge.

Mr. Plegge said he received assurances that everything was safe and that he will get a detailed report on the waste from federal and state inspectors.

Cite Attorney Larry Hartman informed the council he is working on a new ordinance that should help solve the problem. He noted that he and Chief of Police Farris Smith are together and that the ordinance should be ready by the next council meeting.

Building permits applied went to George Lewis, 1126 Market St., $3,500, a garage, storage room, concrete block construction and a cement floor; Dovie G. Harper, 1021 Logan Ave., a frame garage, $1,800; and Eifie Lee Dens, 601 1/2 Main St., a garage.

An arrest report for April 1979 through March 1980 indicated $9,455 in fines, 577 adult arrests and 65 juvenile arrests.

The McKinley Bridge report for April recorded 505,565 vehicles crossing during the month, with 10,102 daily average which was a 5.8% vehicle decrease from April 1979.

"I would like to say to the general public of Venice that I wish to express my gratitude for allowing me to serve this past year," Hartman commented.

"We have made some improvements, but I feel that we still have many things to accomplish.

"We have some real problems, I feel that—with all of us working together—we will continue to make improvements this coming year, and I want to thank everyone for their help," Hartman said.

Band courses will be offered at all schools where there is sufficient interest with the tuition being $12 per student.

GC to require expense vouchers

By HARRY BARNES
of the Press-Record

Noting that Granite City is facing the necessity of financial cutbacks during its current year, members of the City Council approved Tuesday night a policy calling for paying expense to two city employees to attend a meeting and a training session.

Acting on a motion by Fourth Ward Alderman Edward Schuler, the council voted to require two city employees to present vouchers for actual expenses, rather than the flat fee requested.

The city had granted flat fees in the past.

The issue developed when Chief of Police Ronald Veizer asked the council to authorize expense fees totaling $400 for Carl Robert Astorino, who had been directed to attend a retraining session of the FBI Academy July 24 through July 27.

Alderman Sam Whitmer of Fourth Ward, who has been a consistent foe of such expenditures, told the council,

"I discussed this thing a year ago and began voting against it," he said. "Then I didn't get any support or help from anyone else and I backed off."

"Now, with the city facing a touch financial year, I think it is time we can back off on this issue of expense fees," he said.

"Then I didn't get any support or help from anyone else and I backed off."

"We have been talking about the possibility of laying off some city workers."

If we do, we will be laying off the most educated people in the city forces."

A motion to grant the $400 was made by Alderman Everette Morlen when the request first was made, with second by Alderman Paul Bowler, who is chairman of the council's finance committee. After Whitmer's remarks, Bowler announced he was withdrawing his motion to the motion but Morlen objected and Mayor Paul Schuler ruled that the second would stand.

Alderman Glen Sprankle commented that employees were to be given free fees and conventions on subjects pertinent to their work and Morlen said that this was particularly true in police work when an officer may be working on a case that is important to making a case.

Fourth Ward Alderman Warren Decatur said he could understand the viewpoints of both sides and that he believed the city should grant some kind of expense but should do it on an actual expense basis rather than grant a flat fee.

Decatur then amended the original motion to provide for a flat fee of $100 with the understanding that Astorino would produce vouchers showing his expenses and that any money left would be returned to the city.

Alderman's amendment carried 10 to 3, with one alderman absent. A subsequent motion to grant the expenses under the amended conditions also carried.

Decatur then moved that hereafter the city would pay only actual expenses indicated by vouchers, but that motion lost by 9 no votes to 4 yes votes.

The discussion was intensified when another request was made for Edward Schulze of the engineering department who asked $200 in expenses to attend a training institute at the Lake Michigan Federation and Conservation Foundation at Zion, Ill., on May 18, 19 and 20.

Whitmer protested such grants on grounds that the city has no money for trips. Douglas responded that he was objecting because the engineer's department had cooperated on city projects in his will and that personal reasons had nothing to do with it.

Douglas' motion also lost 9 to 4.

Fourth Ward Alderman Charles Douglas of the First Ward told the council he had been unable to get any cooperation in planning a street project in his ward and for that reason was objecting to the grant. Douglas made a motion to deny the request.

Whitmer told Douglas he was objecting on personal grounds, whereas he

Little Lamb Pre-School registration

Belleville Area College will go on a shortened work week effective May 22. This will be the first Friday the college will be closed in a continuing energy saving program.

During the last two summers, college officials said savings of more than $20,000 annually in energy cost savings were achieved by closing the campus for three days and shutting off air conditioners each weekend.

College classes are held Monday through Thursday in the summer, and employees work ten hours a day for four days rather than eight hours for five.

Some community college in the state have strongly considered going to a four-week break year arrangement. However, BAC board members have expressed the belief that the estimated savings during the two regular semesters would not be great enough to warrant the additional service.

Thus, no consideration is being given to a year around four-day week at Belleville Area College. A five-day week will be in effect again two weeks prior to the beginning of fall classes.

BOAT MOTOR TAKEN

An $600 boat motor was stolen from the boat in the rear yard at the home of Robert and Linda Gosselink, 2615 Grand Ave., it was discovered at 4:45 a.m. Tuesday. The motor had been chained and padlocked to the boat. It was the third theft from Clutts in about one month.

The classes for four-year-olds will be each Monday and Wednesday, 9:30-11:30 a.m. and 12:30-2 p.m.

The class on Fridays, 9:30-11:30 a.m., will be open to the four-year-olds.

Registration fee is $5, payable in advance, the tuition is $16 per month for children attending two days per week.

Little Lamb Pre-School admits students of any race, color, nationality, sex, and all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of its educational policies, admissions policies, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

Thus, no consideration is being given to a year around four-day week at Belleville Area College. A five-day week will be in effect again two weeks prior to the beginning of fall classes.

GC approves land transfer

An ordinance under which Granite City will provide additional parcels for picking service to the Granite City School District in return for three parcels of land necessary to construct overpasses on the downtown overpasses was given final reading by the City Council Tuesday night.

Mayor Paul Schuler said the land parcels will be transferred later to the school district to return for right-of-way necessary for the overpass construction and in return for an easement to install a gas main.

The right-of-way provided by the Siedener firm, cut off the firm's roadway access to 19th Street and the city agreed to provide land for such access.

Under the ordinance, the school district will transfer land parcels 4, 5 and 6 of block 44 on which the school administration offices are located, 20th and Adams streets. The city will except from parcel 4 all rights of ownership in a railroad spur.

The transfer will involve 30 by 33 feet on the west side of 20th Street, 8 and 10 Adams streets, a parcel of land 20 by 34 feet, also on the west side of the school property and a parcel 34 by 144 on the south side of the school property.

Mayor Schuler explained that in return for the property the city will extend garbage pickup services for six district 9 schools that need more than the one pickup per week they have been getting. The mayor estimated the increased pickup cost for the city would amount to about $6,000 to $7,000 per year. The city also will pay for fencing at areas where it is needed.

The Granite City School Board also met Tuesday night, it took no further action in the property transfer, pending passage and signing of the city documents.

Arrest two

Mike P. Mull, 20, of 2436 Lincoln Ave., and Larry G. Dusky, 19, of 2521 E. 24th St., were arrested after they allegedly attempted to strike Shelby Siebert, 2415 Lincoln Ave., with an auto at 10:35 p.m. Monday.

Siebert said he heard tires squeal and glass break in front of his house and when he investigated, he found broken bottles at the curb. He got a broom and was cleaning up the broken glass when he heard a car squeal and when he looked up, an auto without headlights was coming at him rapidly.

He reported he was barely able to jump out of the way of the auto, which struck a car he was holding with the broom he was holding. The car then stopped and the two occupants threw beer bottles at him, which broke his left arm.

The two men then fought with Siebert and Siebert's son came outside to help his father. The two then got back in their car, threatened to go after a man and hit him and then drove from the scene, the victim reported.

Police found the car which left the area in a driveway in the 2500 block of Lincoln Avenue and Mull and Dusky were in custody. They were taken to Siebert's house and allegedly were belligerent toward Siebert, who identified them as the men who were in the car.

Mull and Dusky were charged with disorderly conduct and were released on $3 cash bond each.

Olympics bowling matches

Special education students sponsored by the Tri-City Association for Retarded Citizens participated in the Olympics Bowling tournament held at the Lincoln Lanes in Belleville, while four first-place trophies were taken by members of Oath, Inc. of Madison.

Participants of Specialized Services participated in the competition and won four first-place positions. Entries in the Olympics were from specialized service organizations throughout Madison and St. Clair County.

The four first-place winners of Oath were Brenda Bird, Donna McCoy, Nancy Thomason and Bob Head. In addition, Oath participants also received the following competition: Pam Thomason, second place; Larry Kynion, third; Frank

St. Mary's scene of Kozak-Rice vows

Miss Charlotte R. Rice and James T. Kozak were united in marriage March 29 at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rice, 2044 Fourteenth St. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kozak, 1522 Sixth St., Madison.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Melchior Toczek at 2 p.m. before an altar decorated with white mums and pink violets.

Musical selections included the theme from Romeo and Juliet, "Somewhere My Love," "Evergreen," "Ave Maria," "We've Only Just Begun" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother."

Women's club aids scouts

The Venice Women's Club May meeting was held during the weekend at the Venice Recreation Center.

Mrs. Elenora Weber, president, conducted the business session and officers gave their reports. The annual contribution was made to the Venice Girl Scout Troop, which the club sponsors.

A social hour followed, provided by the hostesses, Mrs. Dennis Cima, Mrs. Geoffrey Lux, a cousin of the groom, and Miss Tania Newsome, a cousin of the bride.

They were attired in identically styled gowns in rosette pink and each carried a basket of mauve morning glories, pink ribbon, pink begonia and pink roses and foliage.

Heather Pond, flower girl, wore an identical gown. She carried a white net parasol edged with white satin ribbons and pink begonia blossoms on cascading mauve streamers.

Dennis Cima attended the dress as best man. Vernon Meyer, Geoffrey Lux and Timothy Morton were groomsmen.

Ushers were Ron Warchol and Dave Mooshegan. Christopher Warchol was ring bearer.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Rice, wore an aqua A-line gown with chiffon capedlet.

Mrs. Kozak, the groom's mother, selected a sleeveless green chiffon dress accented with a matching caplet.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at St. Mary's Engelbert Hall in Madison. The reception was also held at the church.

The bride graduated from Granite City High School South and is employed as a secretary at Consolidated Aluminum Corp.

The groom graduated from Assumption High School and is employed at Granite City Steel.

The couple are residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to Florida.

Organist Dave Long accompanied soloist June Brueckling.

The bride selected a white organza gown with a high neckline and bodice of re-embroidered English net inlay and seed pearls.

The A-line gown featured a wide belt, a full skirt and a deep ruffle flounce of English net encircling the hemline and accenting the waist train.

Her double-tiered chapel length veil was trimmed in white lace and secured by a headpiece of Alencon lace and seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white, mauve and pink roses, white gardenias, lily-of-the-valley and greenery.

Maid of honor was Cathy Jung. She wore a mauve silexa gown featuring a fitted bodice with a ruffle neckline and a deep ruffle at the hemline which formed a bustle in the back.

Bridesmaids included Mrs. Dennis Cima, Mrs. Geoffrey Lux, a cousin of the groom, and Miss Tania Newsome, a cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Heurshel Teller of Glen Carbon, celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Thursday, May 1. Mr. Teller of Granite City and the former Mildred Ellet of Grand Tower, Ill., were married in Arkansas May 1, 1950. They have four children, Rodger, Lisa and Robin Teller of Glen Carbon, and Mrs. Kenneth (Deborah) Williams of Granite City. The occasion was marked with a dinner dance in Belleville.

Mrs. Gieszelmann

secretary of year

Mrs. Helen Gieszelmann, administrative assistant, Madison Metal Decorating Co., won the title of Secretary of the Year, Tri-Cities Chapter, The National Secretaries Association International.

The announcement was made by 1979-80 SOTY, Miss Twila Edmonds, State Farm Insurance, at the Secretaries Week dinner held at Sunset Hills Country Club.

Mrs. Gieszelmann is the wife of Edward Gieszelmann and mother of Mrs. Phyllis Warford, Mrs. Janet Goeller, and Jim Gieszelmann. Her immediate supervisor, Helen Gotsch, manager of Madison Metal Decorating Company, was selected by the members of the Tri-Cities Chapter to serve as their Boss of the Year last October. Gotsch and his wife, Marilyn, were present when the award was made, as were Robert Lauenstein, president of the company, and his wife, Anne Mat.

The honoree, a member of the Tri-Cities Chapter since 1963, currently serves as chairman of the Civic Committee, co-chairman of Executive Night, chairman of Madison Metal Decorating Company Future Secretaries Association committee, membership committee chairman, and also chairman of the Sideline Foundation Committee. She served as president of the chapter from 1966 to 1968.

She previously received the Secretary of the Year Award in 1968.

Other active members of the chapter who have been named Secretary of the Year include Charlesl Vunovic, CPS, Eileen Lengyel, Mary Sedekum, Jane Davis, Twila Edmonds, Joy Augsburger, Dorothy Maley, Sunny Scruggs, May Gain, Gail Foley, CPS, Gracey, Joyce Salch, Lana Randolph, CPS, Peggy Moore, and Nancy Bezan.

Women of Moose attend conference

The Granite City Chapter of the Women of the Moose attended the Mid-Year Conference at the Hilton Hotel in Peoria, Ill., in conjunction with the Loyal Order of Moose.

Those attending the conference were: Junior Graduate Regent Sara Gusewelle; Senior Regent Rosella Mead; Recorder Dorothy Coy; Star Director Carolyn Clegg; and Mardi d'Or Votupal; Ritual Director Marian Lipscomb; and members Edna Miller and Carolyn Anders.

The general charge was $100. Grand Regent Jeanne Staudenmaier from Bloomington, and the official visitor was Grand Regent Geraldine Shaffer from Trenton, N.J.

Edna Miller presented a check from the chapter for the Mooseheart telephone system with the other green cap members, and Mrs. Mead presented a check from the chapter for a love gift for the grand regent.

There were 89 chapters registered for the conference.

The next conference will be held in conjunction with the Loyal Order of Moose September 26-28 in Peoria. The Academy of Friendship session was held at the high school in Bloomington, on Sunday, May 4 at p.m.

Rescuer would try it again

By SAM SMITH
The Iranian rescue mission was an experience that will never be forgotten by two employees of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Margery Wolf, a secretary in the Office of the Vice President, and her husband, Melvin, a grounds worker with the university's Plant Operations, learned last week that their son, Brad, 28, was a member of the group that attempted to rescue American hostages being held in Iran.

A staff sergeant and a communications specialist with the U.S. Air Force, Brad was asked to talk about the experience while he was reunited with his parents at their Warden home during the weekend.

Stationed at Grissom Air Force Base near Peru, Ind., Sgt. Wolf said he would go back to Iran "in the blink of an eye" if he had the opportunity.

"I've got my bags packed, and I'm ready to go if I'm called," the nine-year veteran of the Air Force said.

His parents, obviously proud of their son's involvement in the spectacular attempt to rescue the hostages, said they will support him in whatever career he chooses. "I could not hold back their feelings of happiness that he had returned home safely and without injuries."

"We've always been proud of Brad. He never said that right now," his mother said. "We're just very sorry for the families of those who didn't make it back."

Mrs. Wolf added that she felt the same sense of pride and eye if he had the opportunity.

The sergeant's father echoed his wife's sentiments, stating, "I'm really sorry that after all the intense preparation, the mission failed because of technical problems. I think they could have done the job."

Sgt. Wolf declined to reveal details of the mission but said he had realized it was a "very emotional experience." The men were together for eight days of intense training and operations.

He signed up for the mission because of his skills in maintaining radio and other communications equipment. Wolf said he didn't know what he was volunteering for when he was asked if he would consider a special mission.

But he said he was not sorry it turned out to be the rescue effort, and again indicated his willingness to undertake such a mission again.

Wolf is scheduled to be transferred in July to an air base in South Dakota, where he will be an instructor in communications equipment maintenance.

He spoke about the complicated systems and the high level of skills required to work in that field, but he indicated that modern electronics is actually simplifying maintenance procedures and making communications more dependable.

"Talking around the world is no problem with the equipment we have," he said.

A 1969 graduate of Warden High School, Wolf studied engineering at Bradley University before he entered the Air Force in April 1971.

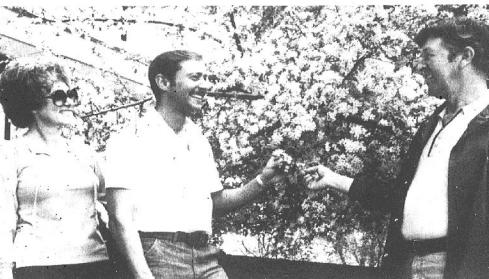

He has one more year in his current enlistment contract and plans to re-enlist for another year. The fact that he has been selected to be an instructor in evidence of his commitment to make a career of the military service.

The Air Force sergeant

has received numerous awards and commendations during his years of service and has been honored as the hero's welcome to the rescue mission group received this week. He said most of his service has been stateside, although he did serve in Vietnam near the end of the Vietnam War.

Wolf is married and the father of a son, Ben, who at 2½ realizes his father is a hero but really just prefers to be called "dad" at home, hero nor not.

Sgt. Wolf's parents fall in the category of "veterans," too. His father has worked as a heavy equipment operator for the university since 1962. His mother, who has the civil service classification of "secretary four, transcribing," has been employed at SIUE since 1967.

FAMILY REUNITED. It was a "beautiful weekend" in more ways than one for Margery Wolf, her son, Brad (center), and her husband, Melvin (right), as they enjoyed the outdoor scenery at SIUE and rejoiced over Brad's safe return from the ill-fated attempt to rescue American hostages in Iran. Staff Sgt. Brad M. Wolf is an Air Force communications specialist stationed at Grissom Air Force Base, Ind. His parents are both employees of SIUE.

Polish society plans events

The Polish American Cultural Center (PACS) will hold its next two meetings at the Polish Hall, 826 Madison, at 7:30 p.m., on the second Tuesday of each month, May 13 and June 10, starting at 7:30 p.m.

All persons interested in promoting Polish Culture are invited to attend, a spokesman said.

Eleanor Kanis, publicity chairman, reported PACS is also planning a Polka Disco Dance Saturday, May 10, at the Polish Hall, Madison, featuring the Warsaw Wenders.

Food and refreshments will be available at 7 p.m. and Disco music at 8 p.m. Admission to the dance will be $2.50.

Troop 7 at pilgrimage

Scout Troop 7 of St. Joseph's Council attended the 35th annual Lincoln Pilgrimage by way of Amtrak Passenger Trains. The Scouts departed from St. Louis, Friday, April 25 at 8:45 a.m., train and arrived in Springfield at 11 a.m.

Upon arriving in Springfield, the Scouts visited the state capital and the Illinois State House and Senate in session. Afterwards, they visited the Illinois State Museum and ended the day by hiking to their campsite, the Lincoln Woods.

Saturday, everyone enjoyed a day of Patrols, Troop and individual Scout activities at Riverside Park. A troop football game was played. The Cobras Patrol defeated Flaming Arrow Patrol 8-4.

Sunday, the Scouts broke camp and hiked to the Cathedral to attend mass. Bishop McNicholas was to be present when Senior Patrol Leader Steve Kusmierszak received the Ad Altare Dei Religious Award for Catholicism.

The Scouts later attended the 35th annual Lincoln Pilgrimage and parade, sponsored by the Abraham Lincoln Council. Approximately 12,000 Scouts (Boys, Cub, and Girl) from all parts of the state marched in the 1.5 mile hike from the tomb of Abraham Lincoln to the state capital.

Their final day in Springfield consisted of campfire skits performed for the Girl Scouts at the Amtrak train station while awaiting their departing train. They arrived in St. Louis shortly before midnight.

Seventeen of the Troop's 21 Scouts attended: Senior Patrol Leader Steve

Eighth graders sponsor pro-life mass for center

The eighth grade class of Sacred Heart-St. Joseph Schools sponsored a pro-life mass and the baby gifts and donations collected by the Student Council will be given to the Alpha Center for Women.

The center, which will be opening soon, is headed by Susanna Gasparovic, Director; Olga Kusmierszak, Carl Kittel, vice-president; Maxine Hoeller, secretary; and Barb Reedy, treasurer.

The eighth graders wrote and planned the liturgy. Those participating in the mass were Brigitte Kittel, Connie Williamson, Kim Daugherty, David Miller, Christopher Sinde, Roger Knobelsiek, Rich Zabawski, Dan Harpup, Kevin Dickerson, Megan Sunde, Michele Zelenka, Debbie Miller, and Cindy Milankovic.

Other class members are Eric Foster, Michael Jaragnie, Eileen Baggot, Linda Tamm, Linda Lester, Linda Ybarra, Laura Sander, Reuben Garcia and Debbie Newman.

Sixth through eighth graders wore the pro-life symbol of a rose on their uniforms during the mass.

Foreign music, food, folk dances Saturday

It will be an evening of ethnic exchanges Saturday at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville when International Night is presented by the International Students Council.

Beginning at 6 p.m. on the Communications Building the public will have the opportunity to taste foods from China, Pakistan, India, Africa, Europe and the Middle East.

Dressed in kilts and playing bagpipes, a Scottish band, the Inveran Pipe Band, will play music during the dining.

At 7 p.m., Saturday, Acting SIUE President Earl Lazerson will give an address opening a program of

Students join fight for ERA

A coalition of students from SIUE has joined an emergency effort to obtain ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment by the Illinois General Assembly, which is expected to vote on the proposal in about two weeks.

"A lot of us feel it's time for Illinois to show the nation that we believe in equality under the law for both men and women," Mike Stern, of Madison, student senate president at the SIUE campus said.

He requested ERA supporters are joining an Alton-based effort to send a group to Chicago on Saturday for an ERA march along Lake Michigan.

"We are not using student or university funds for this effort," Stern said Monday.

"But a group of us are going to be devoting every spare minute to the pro-ERA effort during the next few weeks," Stern said efforts in the 56th Legislative District, which includes Madison, will concentrate on Sen. Sam Vadala.

Sen. Vadala has long been one of organized labor's strongest supporters in Springfield. In 1976, however, during the last Senate vote, Vadala voted against ERA, Stern noted.

At the labor-ERA conference April 28 in Chicago, AFL-CIO President Lane Kirkland and UAW President Douglas Fraser joined UMW President Sam Church and state labor leaders in deciding ERA "the highest legislative priority of labor in Illinois this spring," according to Stern.

"Our job is to show that they do," Stern noted. Steele also represents the Edwardsville area.

The Chicago march on Saturday is being organized by over 300 national groups, including the League of Women Voters, the American Association of University Women and the National Organization for Women.

Women on the SIUE Campus is signing up persons who want to ride buses roundtrip to Chicago. More information may be obtained at the Alton ERA Center. (465-0280).

50th anniversary of Nameoki School set

By DONNA HARTWICK of the Press-Record

A memorable day filled with entertainment, refreshments, activities, guest speakers and social get-togethers will be held for the annual 50th anniversary of Nameoki School to mark the 50th anniversary of the school Friday, May 16, according to Mrs. June Branding, PTA president.

All former students, parents, teachers, school officers and area residents are being invited to attend the observance as well as the present enrollment, their parents and teachers. Mrs. Branding commented.

Anyone who has any old programs of past school events, pictures of interest, or items relating to the school are invited to contact the school or Mrs. Branding so that an exhibit can be set up at the school to renew former projects.

Rep. Everett Steele, one of the guest speakers, will formally present a flag from the state, donated one from Washington D.C., during the afternoon.

A parade featuring decorated bikes, banners and flags will herald the 1 p.m. to be followed by a flag ceremony at 1:30 conducted by the Boy and Girl Scouts of the school. They also will lead the audience in singing the Star Spangled Banner.

Games for the young and young at heart are to begin at 1:45 p.m., as well as a softball game involving the youth and adults.

Those attending may wish to participate in sack races, roll tires race, chew crackers and whistle, pocket lady and a three-legged race. Special tee shirts and caps are to be made for badges or buttons marking the fun packed day.

One of the highlights of the day will be a hot air balloon exhibition at 4:30 p.m. and the person to man the balloon will be on hand to posting $100 cash bond.

Safety patrol members attend game

A contingent of School Safety Patrol members from Granite City area schools attended the 21st annual School Safety Patrol baseball game, Friday night, May 2 at Busch Memorial Stadium in St. Louis.

Patrol members were guests of the St. Louis Cardinals and the St. Louis Auto Club sponsors the School Safety Patrol throughout the school year. Some 5,500 Safety Patrol members from Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois attended the game.

ARREST ON WARRANT

Albert L. Ziegler, 24, St. Louis, was arrested at Nameoki Road and Pershing Boulevard at 8 p.m. Tuesday on a warrant alleging failure to pay his fine on a criminal damage to property charge. He was released after posting $100 cash bond.

FAMILIAR FACES. Are you in this picture? You are if you attended Nameoki School in 1929 as this is a picture of the entire student body taken outside the building. The PTA of Nameoki School is planning a 50th year celebration for Friday, May 16, and has invited all alumni to attend and participate in the day-long activities, according to Mrs. June Branding, PTA president. A parade at 1 p.m. will open the festivities that will include refreshments, entertainment, guest speakers and a hot-air balloon exhibition.

Public administration master degree, periodontology, prosthodontics OK'd

Three new units of instruction at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are master of administration (MPA) degree program and two special certificates in dentistry — received approval Tuesday by the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

The objective of the MPA program is to prepare persons for administrative positions in federal, state and local governments.

Areas of emphasis will be available in such fields as environmental administration, social welfare administration and community development, through course work in related disciplines offered by the university.

The program conforms to guidelines and standards established by the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration.

A maximum enrollment of 56 majors and 25 graduates per year is expected to be received by the second year.

The new specialty certificates offered by the School of Dental Medicine are in periodontology and prosthodontics.

The periodontology specialty is expected to provide opportunities for dentists to upgrade their skills in treatment of diseases of the bone and tissue supporting the teeth.

The prosthodontics program is expected to alleviate the shortage of prosthodontists in Illinois and to improve the research and teaching efforts of the School of Dental Medicine.

According to university officials, only dentists and board-eligible specialists, excluding orthodontists, are in practice in southern Illinois.

The periodontology program is also expected to meet the demand for prosthodontics.

New flights to Chicago

Midway Airlines will begin Chicago-St. Louis service today in the wake of the strike affecting Ozark Airlines that began Tuesday.

The jet will begin flying initially with one round trip between Midway Airport and Lambert Field. A second trip may be added if necessary to help accommodate passengers affected by the strike.

"We began receiving a number of calls Tuesday morning through our reservations center seeking St. Louis service," said Irving T. Tague, president.

"Because of the high volume of calls and the thousands of affected passengers, we will institute service to help these passengers."

Flight 1 will leave Midway Airport at 1:30 p.m., arriving in St. Louis at 2:20 p.m.

Flight 14 will leave St. Louis at 2:45 p.m., arriving at Chicago at 3:35 p.m. In St. Louis, the Midway gate and direct transfer facility will be in the Main Terminal, International Wing, through Entry 1.

The Midway fare will be $45 one-way. Ozark tickets will be honored and Midway will refund for differences.

Tague said Midway was able to begin service immediately because authority in the market was received when Midway was formed in 1978.

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City South Class AA baseball regional tournament could be one of the most exciting ever, when it gets underway next week at sites around the area.

Three arch-rivals, Granite North, Edwardsville and Granite South, are entered in the tourney and that can mean only one thing. Fireworks.

Granite City North, seeking a second straight trip to the "Elite Eight" state finals, will host Roxana on May 20 in the first round. In other first round action, Edwardsville will host the winner of Tuesday's Plaist at Jerseyville's game. South will play at Bethalto and Wood River will be at Alton. All games will begin at 4 p.m. The action switches to South Saturday, when the winner of Edwardsville's game will meet either South or Bethalto at 10 a.m. Then it'll be either North or Roxana against Alton or Wood River. The championship game will be Tuesday, May 27 at 4 p.m.

That's for openers. And Granite South coach Jim Stegemeier hopes there won't be a repeat of last season's first round. But North coach Bob Stegemeier is hoping things go just as they did a year ago.

Last season, North came on the scene to defeat some of the area's best teams enroute to its trip to Florida. Among the teams the Steelers beat along the way was Edwardsburg.

Edwardsburg's Tigers

of coach Bill Funkhouser had had North's number this season. Three times the two teams have met (within the first three weeks of the season). Edwardsburg has won all three times. Those three victories may have wrapped up the Gateway East Conference championship early for the Tigers. But what really counts, according to Stegemeier, is what happens in the "second season."

This season, the Class AA State Finals will be held in South twinbill is for the birds

By KEVIN ALLEN

GRANITE CITY — A pair of large birds looped lazy circles around the light poles in left-center field during the sixth inning of the second game of Granite City South's double header against Belleville East yesterday.

It was like a scene from some old western where the hero is lost in the desert, dying of thirst, and these big birds circle the sky, waiting.

It looked like that. The birds looked like.... no, forget it.

It was just, well, South's Warriors. If not dying, were looking mighty ill. After losing the opening game 7-0, South was in the process of dropping the nightcap 9-5.

Before the fatal sixth, the two teams had gone the Warriors looked like they might pull through. South had allowed East to overcome the Warriors' original three runs and had a lead still, when signs of life remained. Going into the sixth, the Warriors only trailed 6-3.

It was then that the Warriors pulled the plug.

For runs on one hit, and three South errors gave East four runs. Speaking kindly, it was a sloppy inning.

One mistake seemed to breed another. The first three Lancer batters in the inning scored before either an out or a hit was recorded. A measure of South's frustration in the inning came on Belleville's first two runs.

Lancer Dave Slimack walked to lead off the sixth. Two wild pitches, one with Dennis Haake at the plate, Haake also walked giving Belleville runners at first and third.

The next Lancer batter, Jack Koenig sent a ground shot to Cope, but the third baseman went through Cope's legs and on to left field.

Slimack scored easily and Haake would add another, Koenig at the plate, Koenig at attempted to steal second. The throw from Warrior catcher Steve Ficker was off target, and the runner at third, Haake, took off for home. Lancer second baseman Kevin Sykes tried to throw out Haake, but again the throw was bad. Haake scored and Koenig wound up on third. Three runs, no hits, three errors.

It was that kind of night. "What can you say about something like this?" South coach Babe Champion is still leading the area in hitting. His performance yesterday in Belleville did nothing to hurt his average. Batey went two-for-three and scored a run in the Steeler's 6-3 Gateway East Conference victory over Althoff High. At left, Batey watches closely as he fouls one off. Above, he gets back safely to first base during a pick-off attempt.

I-C League to begin play

GRANITE CITY — The Illinois Inter-City League will officially begin its first season this Sunday, May 13.

The Inter-City League has traditionally produced some of the finest semi-pro baseball in the area. This season, the league will consist of five teams. There will be two doubleheaders each Sunday afternoon, with one team receiving a bye each week.

This Sunday, however, the league will be on doubt header.

The Edwardsburg National Auto Body and Brake team will visit the East Alton Indians at Van Praet Field in East Alton. The Indians each game will be seven innings.

Two teams from Granite City will make their debut this season in the I-C League. Corral Liquor and McDonald's of Granite City will each enter teams. Ken Crawford will be manager of the Corral team, while Ray Harris will manage the McDonald's entry.

Crawford last year was manager-player for the Mitchell Athletic Club team in the I-C League, which has been the league's leader since 1973. Several players from the old Mitchell Athletic Club team will remain with Corral.

Also gone from the league this season are the Music Room Vans, annually one of the top teams in the area. The Vans have moved from the I-C League to the Mont-Chair League.

Edwardsburg's entry to the league is also new. But an old familiar face will handle the managing reigns.

Former Illinois State

representative Joe Cope,

also a former Edwardsburg

High baseball and basketball coach, will manage Edwardsburg.

The other entry in the I-C League is

Corral Liquor, managed by

Mark Goins' second

baseball team.

YMCA begins Fun Runs

GRANITE CITY — The Tri-City Area YMCA, located at 2001 Edison Avenue, Granite City, Ill., is sponsoring a "Fun Run" series to benefit in Granite City, Illinois, over this summer. These runs are based on a runner predicting his or her times instead of actual competition against another runner.

There will be four of these runs offered on the Saturday mornings of May 17, June 20, July 25, and August 15. Each of these runs will be held at 7:30 a.m. with the entry deadline occurring 10 minutes earlier at 7:20 a.m. The fee for each of these races is $1.50 and the distance to be run for each race is 5,000 meters, or 3.1 miles.

In preparing to run in these races, each person enters a time that he or she feels will run. This can be as fast or as slow as they want. Whoever comes the closest to predicting their actual times will win post-race awards, mentions Howard Bryant, the YMCA Series Organizer. In each of these races, ribbons will be awarded to the top three finishers in each division and for people who run in three of the four races given will be eligible for the series awards, which will be given to the top ten finishers overall.

Cougars sweep two from Quincy College

GRANITE CITY — The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball team swept their series to 22-22 here Wednesday with a doubleheader sweep of Quincy College. The Cougars pounded Quincy 6-1 in the first game and 6-4 in the second, to post a 9-8 victory.

In the first game, North graduate (1979) Tom Greco started for Southern at second base in the last game and got the come-from-behind rally started in the final inning that eventually won the game for the Cougars.

In that game, Quincy had an 8-3 lead going into the bottom of seventh. Greco led off the inning with a walk. That was followed by a walk to catcher Tony Caletti. Tony Caletti then came to the plate and stroked a single to left field, scoring Greco and making it 8-4. Roger Thomas then singled to centerfield for SIUE, scoring Burge and sending Caletti to third. Jay Kruckman got the final out to end the game.

In the second game, Greco started the plate. He walked the first to drop left-centerfield, sending Hadjuk with the winning run.

In the second inning Hadjuk homered for SIUE leading off.

In the first game, SIUE scored three runs in the first, one in the second, one in the fifth and one in the sixth to walk away with the easy victory.

Doug Gremaud (5-3) was the winning pitcher in the first game. Fernando Aguirre (4-4) got the win in relief of John Mueller in the second game.

O'FALLON — Old reliable. There are some things that almost never change. In sports, the Pittsburgh Steelers always are winners, the Chicago Cubs always lose.

In old mystery movies, you can bet your life that it's usually the butler who committed the crime. It's that way with the Madison High track team.

The "Butler" always does it.

The "Butler" in this case isn't some British fellow with a butler's walk. It's Troy Butler, who glides through the air with the greatest of ease.

Butler, a senior at Madison, has developed into one of the state's leading competitors in the long jump and triple jump and is a top-notch sprinter. On more occasions than not this season, Madison's top scores have included three wins for Butler. One in the long jump, one in the triple jump and one in the 220 yard dash.

Amazingly, Butler has only been seriously concentrating on the jumping events for a little over a year. (Assistant Coach Albert) Gilliam got me interested in it," said Butler. "I worked on it and helped me along. Oh, I'd been on the track team since I was a freshman, but this was the first time I really took it seriously and concentrated on it."

Concentration. According to Butler that is the key to being a successful jumper in track. "That's the most important thing," he said. "You got to bear down and concentrate. Most guys on track teams are in about the same shape physically, so most of the difference is mental."

Even having to compete in four events (he also runs the anchor leg on the 440 yard dash squad) bother Butler's concentration? "No," he said matter-of-factly. "It doesn't bother it at all. You just have to put everything out of your mind when you're jumping."

Butler said there is one particular jumper in the area that he has a rivalry going with. And he happened to be jumping against him Tuesday in O'Fallon. (He) Gilliam of O'Fallon," said Butler said with a grin. "One day he beats me, and the next time I beat him."

Just then, Gilliam strode by. He noticed the reporter. "Hey, Babe," he teased. "You gonna jump today, or you gonna give out some more quotes?"

Gilliam retorted: "Hey, I already told him about you. You'll get your name in the paper, don't worry."

That particular day, it was Butler's turn to win. He won both the long jump and triple jump rather easily. After winning the long jump and waiting for the triple jump to start, Butler sprinted and gave Gilliam some pointers.

Gilliam took the advice. Then the two started clowning again. "Man, I wish I'd run that race with you," said Butler. "I was 22nd," said Gilliam. "No sweat!"

Butler just grinned. "We're good friends," Butler said of Gilliam. "But when we jump, we're serious."

Butler will attend Southern Illinois University in Carbondale next fall and hopes to eventually earn a degree in engineering. He's in the top five in his class at Madison High.

"I hope I can make the track team at Southern," he said. "It'd be nice to be able to get some kind of an athletic scholarship, but mainly I want to get into engineering and the track team second."

If past performance is any indication, the "Butler" will do it.

North Boosters

GRANITE CITY — The
Granite City High School
North Boosters Club will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, May 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Items on the agenda will include election of officers for the 1980-81 school year and the presentation of the sports booklet for the '80-'81 sports seasons. All Boosters and parents of North students are being urged to attend.

PONDEROSA'S PLAYER OF THE WEEK

A Trojan Horse

MADISON — Madison
High School track star
Troy Butler can do it all.
He's Madison's secret weapon, even though by now he's really no secret.
He's a virtual Trojan
Horse.

Butler has become known around the area as one of the "stealer to beat." He usually wins
two events every meet
he enters, the triple jump and the long jump. Sometimes, he wins three, since he's also entered in the 200 yard dash.

Tuesday in a triangular meet at O'Fallon, Butler came through with none of his triple-wins. He was nearly a four-time winner, since he ran the anchor leg on the Trojans' first place 440 relay team. He had to come from second place when he got the baton to win.

For the second reason,
Butler has been chosen as this week's Ponderosa —
Press-Record Player of the
(at left) with O'Fallon jumper
Rob Goss. Butler describes as his "closest rival" (see related story.)

Uncle Sam key to unlocking coal, other energy—Thompson

Illinois Governor James R. Thompson said Monday that the survival of the nation's economy will require major changes in federal policy to permit the use of coal and promote development of other domestic energy resources.

In a keynote speech at the opening of a four-day American Mining Congress International Coal Show in Chicago, Thompson called for non-nuanced "politics of power" to help bring about changes in federal law and regulations which prevent the tapping of coal reserves.

"We cannot survive as long as we keep our coal industry in parking gear," and keep sitting on 80 percent of our fossil fuel resources while we keep our economy more than 80 percent dependent on other fuels," the governor said.

"We cannot survive if we refuse to think big, think bold and act now on getting ourselves up and out of the energy pit we've dug ourselves into."

Thompson called on both national political parties and the coal industry to back a five-point "blueprint for doetic energy production" drawn up by the nation's 19 governors, which is now under review by the National Governors'

Association and members of Congress.

Thompson noted that the plan incorporates some of the proposals for encouraging coal use made recently by the bi-partisan Friends of Coal group on Coal, headed by West Virginia Governor Jay Rockefeller, on which Senator Charles Percy of Illinois served.

"This is not just a Republican plan," he said. "It's the kind of plan we need to act on for the survival of our republic."

"Its 19 authors represent 80 percent of our nation's population, two-thirds of our oil and gas resources, 40 percent of our coal production and nearly half of our nuclear power generation."

He said the plan is "reasonable, and doable with today's technology. Most importantly, it strikes a balance that health experts keep saying we have to strike between the ideals of a perfect environment and the realities of our industrial society."

Thompson said the plan calls for Congress and the administration to restructure and redirect national energy and environmental policies around five common sense principles: "Restore our environmental laws and rules to their original intents and purposes" by developing objective "standards we can trust;" mandating economic and environmental health impact analysis of any standards written in law; and returning primary responsibility for enforcement of standards to the states "as Congress intended with environmental laws."

"It's one thing to put the power of government on the side of health and safety standards," Thompson said. "We're talking about another thing to turn that power into a weapon that can be used against our economy, which is what we've done by cluttering up our laws with cross-purposes and leaving it up to an unelected bureaucracy to make policy that Hill."

permits under any environmental laws be deemed granted if bureaus fail to act within set time limits.

3. "Make enforcement of our environmental standards reasonable" by making installation of secondary and tertiary pollution control equipment mandatory only when the need can be demonstrated, and permitting industries to develop their own "image of likeness" by permitting discretionary rulemaking powers; opening ready access to court review of federal actions to permit state decision-making; shifting the burden of proof on the federal government in such cases; and mandating that

5. "Let's get government out of the business of trying to run the energy business." Thompson cited the recently enacted federal "windfall profits tax as a 'penny wise and a pound' which could discourage exploration for new oil and exploitation of tertiary oil recovery techniques.

He urged reopening the "windfall profits tax and the National Oil Policy Act" to bring price and decontrol schedules into step with the new realities we face," and taking a "hard look" at laws and rules which limit energy development on two-thirds of federal lands.

He said miners and the coal industry "will go back to work when more of us get to work to change the politics of power in this country."

The "politics and power" with small p's, a politics of that cuts across party lines, cuts through the rhetorical fog, and forces candidates and industries to make their platitudes and promises into platforms for action.

"It demands action as the price for getting in, and staying in, public office," Thompson said.

Better hearing month

Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City and Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison met with A.W. Davis, owner of the Tri-City Hearing Aid Service at 1142 Rhodes St., in Granite City, in which the mayor signed a proclamation that designated May as Better Hearing and Speech month in their respective areas.

Davis reported that loss of hearing has grown to a major problem worldwide, mostly in the industrialized nations. In America alone, who have hearing problems. Noise is the greatest contributor while certain medications and diseases of the ear make up the list that Davis concluded.

cause hearing loss, Davis said.

"If people working in noisy environments would wear custom-made ear plugs, the chances are they would have a better hearing retirement," Davis noted. "These custom-made ear plugs are comfortable because they are made from impressions of the person's own ear and last for many years. They are made so as to suppress low sounds and still permit conversation which is necessary in case of danger," he added.

"Another thing that would help is for people to have a hearing and ear examination by an ear specialist if a problem is suspected," Davis concluded.

Coolidge Band earns 5 superior ratings

Madison County farmers were reminded today that June 1 is the deadline to report planted acreages of wheat, barley, oats and rye. Actual acreage reported should be used at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) Office at Edwardsville, to establish eligibility to participate in the commodity loan and grain reserve programs.

Farmers who have not already done so should come by the county ASCS office as soon as possible to file their small grain acreage reports avoid waiting in line the last days to report," Esenpries added.

Esenpries said farm operators and owners should not overlook the June 1 deadline to report their acreages of wheat, barley, oats and rye on all farms in which they have an interest. He added, "Failure to file the small grain acreage report could result in loss of year farm program benefits."

"Possible losses include disaster protection, target price protection, right to prove crop yields due to no crop history, and eligibility to participate in the commodity loan and grain reserve programs."

Farmers who have not already done so should come by the county ASCS office as soon as possible to file their small grain acreage reports avoid waiting in line the last days to report," Esenpries added.

Shared ride, carless day, odd-even gasoline plans in Illinois

A proposed plan for state emergency gasoline conservation, stressing cooperation and measures to manage shortages, has been prepared by the Illinois Institute of Natural Resources for public review.

Director Frank B. Tait, "We want to let the public know that the kind of program the Institute recommends for gasoline contingencies focuses on measures that can be implemented quickly, effectively and without unnecessary restriction on the freedom of the consumer."

The Institute is in the process of distributing copies of the document and will accept written comments until June 6.

The plan is intended to follow the language of the federal Emergency Energy Conservation Act of 1979. This law gives the president the authority during a gasoline shortage, or the likelihood of a gasoline shortage, to establish conservation targets and require state plans to meet those targets.

"By developing the federally-mandated Illinois plan in advance of any federal requirements, there will be time for adequate public review and comment on the proposed policies," Beal commented.

The nine points contained in Illinois' proposed plan are divided into two groups: conservation measures to reduce demand and emergency measures to manage gasoline shortages.

The conservation recommendations can be implemented separately or together. The emergency measures are not all meant to be used simultaneously but selectively, depending on the circumstances.

To encourage conservation, the following steps are proposed:

3. A program to reduce automobile use by government, to set an example for private businesses as well as to promote individual carpooling and employer-sponsored vanpooling.

4. Enforcement of speed limits to make maximum use of the existing 55 mile per hour law.

5. A ride-sharing program

To distribute fuel in an orderly manner and prevent exhaustion of supplies during emergencies, five additional elements are recommended:

A. A minimum purchase requirement to prevent topping off of fuel tanks.

B. An odd-even purchase plan to reduce lines at retail stations and restrain demand.

C. Regulated retail station hours to retain demand and to ensure emergency access to fuel.

D. A carless day plan to reduce consumption by restricting automobile use;

E. A three-day purchase plan to reduce consumption by making gasoline less available.

Copies of the proposed "Gasoline Conservation Plan" may be obtained by calling the Institute at (217) 785-2800 or by writing to the Institute of Natural Resources, 200 W. Adams St., Springfield 62706. Written requests and written responses are to be addressed to the attention of Angie Tait.

Close Missouri Ave. for week

The Illinois Department of Transportation has announced that Route 909, Missouri Ave. south of Pontoon Road, will be closed to through traffic from May 12 to May 16, 1980.

Through traffic is to use the alternate route, Illinois Route 3, west of Missouri Ave.

The closure is necessary due to reconstruction of the grade crossing of the Illinois

Terminal Railroad at A.O. Smith Corp. plant. The crossing has settled and will be raised by railroad workers to meet the existing pavement elevation, the state said.

Signs and traffic control devices will be provided to guide motorists. The department requests that motorists be "patient and cautious when traveling" in that area.

City sticker deadline is only one week away

Motorists residing in Granite City are being reminded that the deadline to obtain city vehicle stickers is only one week away and the cost of the stickers will rise by $2.50 per vehicle May 16, one week from now.

Police Ronald J. Veizer has announced that parking stickers will begin setting up roadblocks and giving tickets to Granite City residents without city vehicle stickers on Monday, May 19.

Vehicle stickers are on sale weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the office of City Clerk Robert W. Stevens in the Granite City Hall.

Automobile stickers are $3, until May 16, when they will rise to $5. Truck stickers range from $3 to $25, depending upon the weight of the truck, and will rise in cost by $2.50 each after May 15.

Senior citizens, age 65 and older, have one week in which to obtain vehicle stickers at the senior citizens' center, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue, for $1.

Each senior citizen may purchase one vehicle sticker at that price and must show proof of age, as well as the vehicle registration. After May 15, senior citizens will have to purchase stickers at the city clerk's office for $5.50 each.

Labor and professional groups in Quad-City area this week joined pro-ERA groups in calling for an emergency effort to obtain ratification of the proposed U.S. Constitutional amendment by the Illinois General Assembly, which will take place Saturday in Chicago.

Gene Shultz (L), Jane Pauley and Tom Brokaw inform and entertain NBC viewers Mondays through Fridays on "Today," the nation's longest-running morning news television program.

Rub elbows with kings: a Shakespeare quiz

Season Two of "The Shakespeare Plays" drew to a close May 7 with the PBS presentation of the Bard's final farce comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew." Although the spirit of "The Taming" is a departure from the history plays that preceded it, the characters of all three seasons' plays share one "common bond" — royalty. The head that wears the crown may be unwise, but the following quiz is as simple as I, II, III.

In this comedy, the Duke loved the Countess until his affection was turned by a "page." Name the play that opened Season Two but sounds more like the series' dozenth offering. (3 points) Like "The Taming," the play begins with a shipwreck in a mythical country, but unlike the island in "The Taming," this head that spurned his daughter, Miranda, with a swineherd prince. If the marriage worked, who was Miranda's father-in-law? (3 points)

7. Name the three principal characters of the series. (2 points each)

Who said what? (2 points each)

7. "If music be the food of love, play on."

2. "We are such stuff as dreams are made on."

3. "This royal throne of kings, this seat of Mars, this earthy Empire, this Empire of the world, this best of all possible worlds, I thinke."

4. "What is Honor? A word."

5. "Uneasy lies the head that wears the crown."

Paperback tie-in

Bantam Books has acquired the United States and Canadian book publication rights to Lorimer's "Dallas" and "Dallas II" and will produce a tie-in book to coincide with the publication of the first "Dallas" paperback, timed to coincide with the series' return to CBS in September.

Hope's eighth

The eighth and last of the Hope specials for the 1979-80 season — a final 90 minutes in a 16-hour seasonal special — is being planned for a coming July 15th birthday celebration to honor the performer and a salute to the show. According to daughter Linda, Hope's 80th birthday producer, the special is scheduled to shoot at the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs on May 16. NBC will air the program May 28.

Junior soap

Meredith Brook will produce a TV soap opera aimed at junior high kids. Five half-hours will probably be taped in sequence and then run a late afternoon or prime time slot on the five NBC stations (Pittsburgh, Phoenix, Kansas City, Syracuse and Bay City). The show premieres September 12.

State's first ratings to Coolidge singers

Five vocal soloists from Coolidge Junior High School earned first place ratings in the Illinois Grade School Music Association's state contest held Saturday in Mattoon.

Soloists earning first place ratings were Todd Jones for his performance of "Tally-Ho," Jenny Little for "My Master Hath a Guardian,"

Boyd Presley for

"Tomorrow" from "Annie,"

Adam Schneider for "Who Will Buy," from "Oliver," and Missy Russell for "I Bought Me a Cat."

Two ensembles also received first place ratings,

including the boys' group,

"Cupid, My Love," were

Linda Dupont, Kathy Fuller,

Jennifer Little, Elaine

Reinagel, Missy Russell,

Sherry Sedgy, Kim Smith,

Jodi Stagner, Deana

Stephens, Marcia Wilson,

Kelvie Worster and Angela

Members of the ensemble performing the spiritual

"The Power and the Glory,"

were Tim Dierck, Jim

Hein, Todd Jones, Josie

Kalicki, Maria Longos, Paul

Macios, Tim Pabst, Debbie

Rozyczy, Missy Russell,

Dave Seithheimer, Sheryl

Sims and Karen Worster.

Accompanists for the

singers were Pam Dabnick

and Kim Smith.

The group also participated in the 35th annual Springfield pilgrimage held last month.

They traveled by bus to the old state capital, Lincoln's home, Lincoln's Tomb, Lincoln's

Museum and Illinois State

Museum. They also visited the Lincoln

Memorial in the city of

Lincoln's Tomb to the capital. A picnic lunch was held at Springfield Park.

Those attending were:

'20s nostalgia night

PEOPLE

"Nostalgia of the 1920s" provided the theme for this spring's dinner dance given by the Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

A singalong of "tunes of the '20s" was arranged with the Valley State as accompanist, and related vocal music was provided by the Mississippi Valley Press-Record staff photograph.

Fountain and Mrs. Goldenberg were in charge of the program, Mrs. Goldenberg was one of the entertainment chairmen, and Mrs. Partney was co-chairman of the event and also was in charge of the refreshments.

Mrs. Stevens, entertainment; Mrs.

Shirley Adams, games; Mrs. Jacque

DeWitt, director; Mrs. Tina Thomas,

Women's Division secretary; Mrs.

Scannell, president of the Women's Division.

Among those not pictured is Mrs. Mary Jessee, an entertainment chairman. Division directors include Shirley Cunningham, Mary Darner and Eleanor Nichols.

The welcome and introductions were by Mrs. Scannell. An inspirational thought was given by Mrs. Partney, and dance music was provided by Free and Easy Band. President Kenneth Evers spoke and the master of ceremonies was Leo Konzen.

The annual event was held in late April at Sunset Hills Country Club.

Band concert at SIUE

The University Band at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will present a concert May 11 at 3:30 p.m. in the Communications Building theater under the direction of Martin La Rue, member of the University's department of music faculty.

The hospitality hour will begin at 6 p.m., dinner at 7 p.m. and the meeting at 8 p.m. Mayor George Lanxon of Edwardsville will host the meeting.

Charles Houghton of the Bi-State Development Agency is to speak about the Illinois law on funding of public transportation.

Student soloists will be:

Alan Lekosky, Columbia, on Business good, merchants say

The Madison Business Association is developing a calendar of events and special sales.

The general belief expressed by Madison merchants at a Tuesday morning MBA meeting was that business is better to good. A recent April sale was characterized as not doing well, however.

Wayne Scannell is to be in charge of a July 11 and 12 sidewalk sale, and is coordinating efforts and organizations to have booths for a flea market on the empty lot at Third Street and Madison Avenue.

A discussion was held about the need for making more alert to shoplifters, due to numerous layoffs and that schools are about to dismiss for the summer.

It was noted that one of the reasons business is good in Madison is that the customers received good service and good prices.

Shrine fish fry planned on weekend

The annual fish fry sponsored by the Tri-City Shrine Club will be held on Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10, at Bellemore Village Shopping Center, according to Sam Campbell, chairman.

Cost of a dinner plate of fish and chips is $4.00, and $3.00 for the fund raising project will be from Tom Hunday. They will be assisted at the two-day event by members of the club.

Serving will begin on both days at 11 a.m. and conclude at 9 p.m., the chairman noted.

Cost of a plate dinner is set at $2.75 and will include fish, slaw, French fries, either white or rye bread, and sliced pickles.

Stargazers see celestial display

By PAT FOLEY
of the Press-Record

Amateur astronomers and occasional stargazers had the opportunity to witness an infrequent celestial event early this week.

Looking towards the western sky on Sunday evening, a stargazer would have seen three bright objects which appeared to make a small triangle. This was the conjunction of the planets Mars and Jupiter with a distant star marking the third point of the triangle.

Conjunctions of planets are not frequent, only seven this year, and due to atmospheric and smog conditions in this area they are not always visible here.

'This was the conjunction of the planets Mars and Jupiter'

The star seen with the two members of the solar system was Regulus in the constellation Leo, through which the two planets are now passing. Regulus has a magnitude or brightness of 1.3 and is about as bright as Mars at this time.

Conjunctions of planets for the remainder of the year are: Mercury and Venus—June 1; Mars and Saturn—June 25; Mercury and Saturn—Sept. 9; Jupiter and Venus—Oct. 1; Mars and Venus—Nov. 3. The seventh conjunction for 1980 occurred earlier this year involving Mars and Jupiter.

In the right photo, the descent of the threesome becomes apparent in a 30-second time exposure. The white streaks or "star trails" in this case "planet trails," are caused by the stationary position of the telescope and the rotation of the Earth.

The conjunction of Mars was particularly spectacular as the two planets came within one degree of each other. Regulus added to this celestial display as it appeared very close to the planets.

Another conjunction later this year is even more infrequent than conjunctions of planets. A partial eclipse of the moon will occur on the evening of August 25 and will be the only eclipse, lunar or solar, visible from this area for the year. The lunar eclipse will begin at approximately 8:42 p.m. local time (CDT) and will continue until shortly after midnight, to 12:21 a.m.

Three charged

Three young men were charged with two counts each of contributing to the delinquency of a minor following an incident during the weekend in which two juvenile girls allegedly were pushed from a car at Maryville Road and Revere's Route.

Charged were Randy Clemons, 22, of Cottage Hills; Kevin White, 21, of 4608 Kirkpatrick Homes, and Gary Holler, 19, of 1000 South One Granite City.

Clemons, whom police said was driver of the car, also was charged with illegal transportation of liquor and driving while his driver's license was suspended.

Police said they were summoned to Maryville Road and Revere's Route where the two girls were reported to have been pushed out of the car, and later stepped the car. Officers said they found opened beer containers in the auto.

Parents of the two girls

signed complaints against the occupants of the car.

Both of the girls appeared to be intoxicated, officers said.
